No. As a FieldKit user, you have full control over how your data is shared. You can choose to share it with no one else, to share it with trusted collaborators, or to make it public.

FieldKit will never share your data with anyone without your express permission, and we will never sell your data or use it under any circumstance. At any time, FieldKit users can easily change their sharing permissions, or delete their data entirely.

No charges will result from leaving the data on FieldKit servers.
